

New Shoes

My mommy took me to the store
To buy me a pair of new shoes.
Some were black and some were brown
And some were navy blue shoes.

New shoes, new shoes,
Bright and shiny new shoes.
New shoes, new shoes,
Walking down the street.

My daddy let me try them on,
I tried a pair of new shoes.
One was left and one was right,
And they both were navy blue shoes.

Chorus-

My grandma let me wear them home,
I wore my pair of new shoes.
Clippity clop, without a stop,
My brand new pair of new shoes.
