

IF I WERE PRESIDENT...

In Rosemary Wells's book Otto Runs for President, Otto asks his classmates what they want improved in their school. Pretend you are running for class president. What would you do to improve your school or classroom? Fill in the blanks below to write your first campaign speech.

My fellow classmates,

If I were elected class president, the first thing I would do is _____.

I would make sure that every student had enough _____, and that we could have more time for _____. I would ask the teachers and the principal for a new _____ for every student. Lastly, I would recommend less _____ and more _____, because that's what every student wants.

Thank you for your support,
and remember to vote!
