

ALHAMDULILLAH

Adapted from Dawud Wharnsby Ali

I'm just a rock, and everyday I sit and watch the sky
I sleep here in the sun and rain, and do not question why
I don't want to be a bird, 'cause as rocks we're never meant to fly
But you can sit and rest on me when you pass by

Alhamdulillah (Praise be to Allah) - Alhamdulillah I'm a rock
And that is all the world asks of me
Alhamdulillah - Alhamdulillah I'm a rock
And there's nothing else I'd rather be

I'm just a tree and this is the only life I'll ever know
I'll bow my bows and worship whenever I feel the wind blow
And my purpose in life is to grow and nature says grow
And be a home for the birds and shade for folks below

Alhamdulillah - Alhamdulillah I'm a tree
And that is all the world asks of me
Alhamdulillah - Alhamdulillah I'm a tree
And there's nothing else I'd rather be

I'm just a person and my life is full of opportunity
I can travel through the world, over land and over sea
But will I choose the path of Truth, or a path to misguide me?
Sometimes I wish I had a simple life, just like a rock or a tree

But Alhamdulillah - Alhamdulillah I'm a person
And my heart has given me a choice that's free
So, Alhamdulillah - I choose to be a friend
And there's nothing else I'd rather be

Alhamdulillah - Alhamdulillah I'm a person
And my heart has given me a choice that's free
So, Alhamdulillah - I choose to be a friend
And there's nothing else I'd rather be
No, there's nothing else I'd rather be
