

Civil War Museum

We have been learning about the Civil War in class. The problem is that there is so much information that can be learned, but only a certain amount of class time that we can spend on investigating it all. I am hoping we can all pull together, work hard, and contribute our learning with each other through a Civil War Museum. This project will allow students to spend time on one component of the Civil War that interest them. Perhaps one war can lead to a map-making project or a display of food typically eaten by soldiers. The possibilities are endless! I am rather open on just about anything, so long as it enriches our understanding of this time period and it is meaningful. You will, however, need something that stands and makes sense on its own out in the hall. That's about it. What's your plan? Here are the minimum guidelines. My general expectations is high, but as long as you do your best (and forget the rest) you should be fine.

---

Civil War Assignment Rubric

Check off the requirements below to self-evaluate before you hand in your assignment.

Requirement	Points Possible	Self-Evaluation	Teacher Evaluation
Name and a clear title (that allows us to know what your project/work is about)	5
Clear labeling and/or identification of items.	5
Reliable sources used for research, credit given	20
Oral presentation (quick, easy, no fuss, but be able to explain your work to others)	15
The project was completed on time.	15
Civil War language and terminology used	10
Neatness	10
Interest- I enjoyed creating this project and it shows. I found a component of the Civil War that really interested me.	20

---

Please sign cut and return. We, the student and the parent/guardian have read the above directions. We know that we should NOT spend a lot of money on this project. It is due no later than November 23. Thank you!

Parent Signature _____

Student Signature _____