

Road Trip to the Museum of the American Revolution in Philadelphia

Use Google maps or another electronic mapping site to find the answers to the questions below.

1. How many routes can you choose from? _____
2. Use the information on the map to fill in the chart below.

| Name of the Route | Miles from Home | Time Trip Should Take |
|-------------------|-----------------|-----------------------|
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |

3. Which route would you choose and why? _____

4. What states/countries will you be traveling through get there?

5. What cardinal/intermediate directions will you travel to get to Philadelphia, PA from our school? _____
6. How many toll roads are there on your route? _____
7. How many times will you take an exit? _____
8. What is the difference in miles between the longest route and the shortest route? _____
9. How much longer will the longest route take than the shortest route? _____

Road Trip to Philadelphia

- Go to your internet browser
- Search for Google maps
- Allow access to my location if it asks
- Tap Get Directions
- From here (our school address)
- Museum of the American Revolution, 101 S. Third Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106
- Answer the questions
- On a copy of a U.S. map, draw a line that shows the route you are taking to the museum.
- Color in the map to show which states/provinces you will go through using your route.