It’s been said that March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb. What do you think people mean when they say that? Explain your thinking.
Women’s History Month

Research the life of a woman in history that you admire. Write a paragraph that explains why you admire this person, Provide support for your opinion using the sources that our used in your research.

Name of the woman you would like to learn more about: __________________________

Birthplace: _________________________________________________________________

Born: ____________________ Died: : ____________________

Greatest accomplishments:

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Interesting Information:

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
Imagine one afternoon you stumbled across a leprechaun’s pot of gold. Write a story below telling what you would do with the gold.
There's a First for Everything!

Someone was the first person to walk on the moon, the first to climb Mt. Everest and even the first to eat a peanut butter and jelly sandwich! What would you like to be the very first person to ever do? Draw a picture of you doing your “first” activity and write a caption to describe what you are doing in the picture.
On March 19, 1918 the Standard Time Act was passed establishing Daylight Savings Time to help reduce energy usage during World War I. Do you think we should move the clocks forward to provide an extra hour of daylight during Spring and Summer? What are the pros and cons of shifting the clocks? Write your opinion on the subject and give at least two reasons to support your opinion.
10 Things I LOVE about Spring

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
