

Map

A map is a picture that shows locations of places or things.

A map can help a reader see where places or things are located.