The title is on the cover of a book. It tells you the name of the book and usually what it’s about.

The title helps the reader by telling the reader what the book is about.