

Name: _____

Date: _____

Student-Led Conference Reflection and Goal Sheet

We are all looking forward to your upcoming student-led conference. To prepare, you will reflect on your benchmarks, identify strengths and areas of growth, and set goals and action steps for the upcoming quarter. This document will help organize your thinking before your student led conference so that you will feel prepared and confident.

Academic Strengths/Areas of growth

Class	Strength: Which learning target do I feel relates to your best work? I CAN... What are your specific strengths? Where in your work do you display these strengths?	Goal: Which learning target have you not yet mastered? Once you identify it, write the learning target in the box. In what ways will you continue to work on this learning target? Write a specific goal below.	Action Steps: What do you need (from yourself, your family, and your teachers) in order to work towards this goal?
Reading
Writing

Class	Strength: Which learning target do I feel relates to your best work? I CAN... What are your specific strengths? Where in your work do you display these strengths?	Goal: Which learning target have you not yet mastered? Once you identify it, write the learning target in the box. In what ways will you continue to work on this learning target? Write a specific goal below.	Action Steps: What do you need (from yourself, your family, and your teachers) in order to work towards this goal?
Math
Science

Habits of Work Goal: What habits of work goal will you accomplish this quarter? How will you meet this goal?	Social Goal: What social goal will you accomplish this quarter? How will you meet this goal?
---	---

Student Signature: _____ Parent Signature: _____ Teacher Signature: _____