

Dear Fabulous Parents,

I am so excited to see you soon for conferences! I wanted to take a moment and share with you the layout of how our conference will run.

The conference will be led by your child. Their job will be to explain to you what they have noticed in their learning, what goals they have set, and steps they plan to take in order to achieve their goals.

Our job as partners in your child's learning is to support their efforts. We are both there to offer perspectives, ask questions, and applaud all efforts. Many of the questions I ask will relate to what you are noticing at home with your child. I ask that you come prepared with examples you'd like to share regarding behavior and learning that relate to our time at school.

I am including a sign-up link for you to choose a time when you and your child will be available for meeting. Students have been working hard to create their own personal learning goals, they'd love the opportunity to share with you. Your voice is one of many valuable voices in this partnership of their growing as a learner.

Thank you in advance for taking the time to sign up, and I will see you and your child here soon.

Respectfully,
Kriscia Cabral
