

Mrs. Stewart's Reading Homework

I expect you to read daily, at home, for AT LEAST 30 minutes, fill out a Reading Log and have a parent/guardian sign it, and then write one paragraph in your Literacy binder, in the homework section, responding to a prompt we have given you for that week or that day. You are expected to read Monday – Thursday nights and one more time (your choice of when) during the weekend.

Grading for both the Log and the Journal:

√+ = 5 points

√= 3 points

√- = 1 point

Each day you can earn 10 points maximum. Every ten days, you get a number grade. This grade will add up to your overall homework grade.

Reading Log: √+ All parts are filled out and signed by parent/guardian/older sibling (must be 18 years old or older)

√ You are missing one part of your log

√- You are missing two parts of your log

0 You have more than two parts not filled out or no log at all

Reading Journal: √+ You have a complete heading (see below), your Title (underlined) and Author, and a paragraph (5-7 sentences) responding to our prompt.

√ You are missing one part of your heading or missing your Title or Author or have only four sentences.

√- You are missing more than one part of your heading or missing both your Title or Author or have three or less sentences.

0 You have hardly completed anything or no journal at all

If your homework is one day late, unless it is an excused absence, it goes down one grade. After that, it is a zero.

Heading example:

Student complete name and #

Date

Class 6-504, am or pm

Reading HW