

"Well boys," the worm answered, "that look that I took was a look that looked farther than you'll ever look! I looked 'cross the ocean, 'way out to Japan. For I can see farther than anyone can. There's no one on earth who has eyesight that's finer. I looked past Japan. Then I looked across China. I looked across Egypt; then took a quick glance across the two countries of Holland and France. Then I looked across England and, also, Brazil. But I didn't stop there. I looked much further still. And I kept right on looking and looking until. I'd looked 'round the world and right back to this hill!
