

That's Just Ducky!

Directions: Read each animal saying in Column 1. Draw a line from the saying to its meaning in Column 2. Next to each phrase in column 1, draw a little picture of the animal.

Picture

Column 1

Column 2

She clammed up.

He is dishonest.

He has ants in his pants.

I'm overjoyed!

She has a bee in her bonnet.

Her mind is stuck on one thought.

He is lower than a snake's belly.

He is fidgeting.

I'm in hog heaven!

She refused to talk.

This activity is based on There's a Frog in My Throat! by Loreen Leedy and Pat Street. Find more activities at <http://teacher.scholastic.com/fairs>