BIG ACTIVITY: Fly to Ga’Hoole

Imagine that you could take wing and fly to Ga’Hoole as one of the owl characters. Which side would you choose? What kind of owl would you be? Fill out the description and draw a picture of your owl.

My Character in Ga’Hoole

Name: ________________________

Kind of Owl: ____________________

Physical Characteristics: ___________
_________________________________
_________________________________

Emotional Characteristics: ___________
_________________________________
_________________________________

Who I Want to Fight With: ___________
_________________________________
_________________________________

My Special Powers: ________________
_________________________________
_________________________________

Write a short scene about your character in the land of Ga’Hoole.

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

Draw your picture here.