

Reasons to Recommend a Book

- You couldn't put the book down!
- The characters in the book are interesting and entertaining.
- The problem in the story is exciting and unpredictable.
- The author uses descriptive language that is fun to read.
- The book is part of a series, and you want to get your friends interested in the series.
- The illustrations are unique or memorable.
- The story is very funny and makes you laugh while you are reading.
- The story teaches you a lesson that you think other students should learn, too.
- The story reminded you of something we are learning about in class.

