What is your definition of a friend? Who are your friends? Why are they your friends? Think of people older than you and younger than you who are your friends. Do you have friends who are relatives? In the space below write about a friend and the relationship you have with that friend.

A FRIEND

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________