Titanic Newspaper Interview

On _____, you are going to conduct interviews with passengers who survived the Titanic disaster. Half of the time you will be a reporter asking questions and half of the time you will be a passenger providing answers.

If you would like to really get into your role, dress up or bring in a few props to help you play your part. As a reporter, you may want a clipboard, suit coat, or brimmed hat. For your turn as a passenger, you may want fancy hats, shawls, bathrobes, overcoats, babushkas, raggedy shirts, or anything else that may help you “feel” the part. Remember what you wear may distinguish you as a first, second, or third class passenger!
