

Name: _____

Group Number: _____

The Prince and the Pauper Center Activities Rubric

1. Journal: First Day as King or Queen of England

- Journal is at least a page long. (7 points)
- Journal describes actions student would take if made King or Queen. (10 points)
- Journal has organized ideas presented in a reflective manner. (8 points)

_____ out of 25 points

2. Graphic Organizer: “Character Perspectives, Events, and Support”

- At least 2 perspectives and 2 traits or support are listed under each character. (1 points each = 8 points)
- The climax of the story is written in the “Big Event” box on the graphic organizer. (6 points)
- The prediction for each character’s next move is relatively reasonable. (6 points each)

_____ out of 20 points

3. Design your own seal activity

- Seal is decorated. (5 points)
- Seal is a personal reflection. (5 points)
- Seal includes a slogan/mission in life. (5 points)

_____ out of 15 points

4. A Letter Written between Two Characters

- Letter is at least a page long. (7 points)
- Letter is written from one character in the story to another. (10 points)
- Letter has organized ideas presented in a reflective manner. (8 points)

_____ out of 25 points

5. New Ending to the Story

- The new ending completes the story. (10 points)
- Both Tom and Edward are mentioned in the new ending. (5 points)

_____ out of 15 points

FINAL GRADE FOR ALL CENTER WORK

(out of 100 possible points): _____ POINTS

Comments:

REMEMBER: All assignments must be attached to your rubric for grading. Thank you!