BIG ACTIVITY: Fly to Ga’Hoole

Imagine that you could take wing and fly to Ga’Hoole as one of the owl characters. Which side would you choose? What kind of owl would you be? Fill out the description and draw a picture of your owl.

My Character in Ga’Hoole

Name: ____________________________
Kind of Owl: ______________________
Physical Characteristics: __________
_________________________________
_________________________________
Emotional Characteristics: __________
_________________________________
_________________________________
Who I Want to Fight With: __________
_________________________________
_________________________________
My Special Powers: ________________
_________________________________
_________________________________

Write a short scene about your character in the land of Ga’Hoole.
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

Draw your picture here.