

Names of Students: _____

Mark Twain's "The Prince and the Pauper"

Rubric for the Pre-Reading Project

Sources:

The students used at least three different types of sources.

Type 1: _____ (5 points)

Type 2: _____ (5 points)

Type 3: _____ (5 points)

(out of 15 possible points) _____ POINTS

Bibliography

The students turned in a correct and complete bibliography .

All 3 sources are listed. (3 point each, 9 pt. max)

Bibliography is completely correct. (up to 6 points)

(out of 15 possible points) _____ POINTS

Multimedia Presentation

The students created a multimedia presentation.

More than one type of media was used. (up to 10 points)

Presentation was neat. (5 points)

Presentation was easily understood. (10 points)

Effort Points: (up to 5 points)

(out of 30 possible points) _____ POINTS

Writing

Evaluation of writing using the Six Traits.

Ideas	1	2	3	4	5	x 2
Organization	1	2	3	4	5	x 2
Conventions	1	2	3	4	5	x 2

(out of 30 possible points) _____ POINTS

Time Limit

The students stayed within the three- to five-minute time limit while presenting their project. (worth 5 points)

_____ POINTS

You Pick It!

Students will write what aspect of their project they choose to be included in their evaluation by writing a paragraph describing it on the back of this rubric.

(worth up to 5 points) _____ POINTS

TOTAL POINTS:
(out of 100)

_____ POINTS

Comments: