

Welcome back to School!

This year, we're using a new educational tool in our classroom to get your child motivated and inspired to read more—in school and at home.

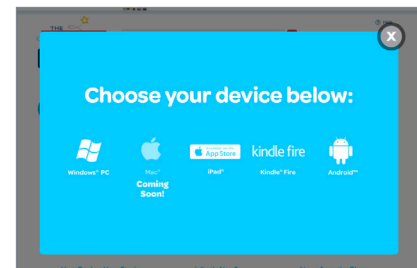

Storia is the free eReading app from Scholastic, designed to motivate students while helping teachers and parents encourage their reading development. Storia eBooks offer the great titles you would expect from Scholastic—fiction and nonfiction—from the classics we all love to today's biggest bestsellers.

I encourage you to get this free app to use with your whole family at home—and make it a great new year for reading!
