Twice as Nice!

What is a good way to understand about a poem’s message? Read it once. Then read it again! Your teacher will read the poem aloud. Draw the pictures you see in your mind in Box 1. Your teacher will then read the poem again. Draw any new pictures you see in your mind in Box 2.

Birds
by Meish Goldish

Look at the bird
Up in the treetop,
Building its nest
With no time to stop.
Hatching its eggs
So smooth and so round,
Then feeding its babies
Worms from the ground.

On the back of this page, draw a picture or write a poem about birds or other spring animals.
