Read on to learn some of the specific ways that Storia School Edition addresses the English Language Arts Standards for Grades K–6:

Reading Standards: Literature

- Literature texts introduce students to a range of themes and genres of fiction. (Standard 2)
- Many texts can be used for interactive read-alouds and to model comprehension with think-alouds. (Standards 1–7)
- Literary excerpts found in Storia Close Reads provide opportunities for text marking and finding textual evidence related to story, structure, and point of view. (Standards 1, 2, 3, 5, 6)
- Each title includes Reading Challenge comprehension quizzes to probe on key ideas and details of character, setting, plot, and theme. (Standards 1, 2, 3)
- The Storia Dictionary helps students interpret words as used in a text, including determining connotation and figurative meanings. (Standard 4)
- With easy access to the whole text, readers can easily explore story structure. (Standard 5)
- Beautiful illustrations that replicate the print experience inform and enhance the reading. (Standard 7)
- Young readers engage with literary text of age-appropriate complexity, with the Read-to-Me audio feature providing support. (Standard 10)

Reading Standards: Informational Text

- Informational text introduces students to diverse subjects across multiple content areas to develop a broad knowledge base. (Standard 2)
- A variety of texts across domains can be used for interactive read-alouds and think-alouds to model comprehension. (Standards 1–7)
- Storia Close Reads include guided instruction that provides opportunities for text marking and finding textual evidence related to content, structure, and author's purpose. (Standards 1, 2, 3, 5, 6)
- Reading Challenge comprehension quizzes for each title provide questions about the main ideas, details, and connections between ideas and events. (Standards 1, 2, 3)
- Key vocabulary is highlighted and the Storia Dictionary will help students with the pronunciations and definitions of domain-specific and academic vocabulary. (Standard 4)
- Readers can easily access the whole text to explore features of informational text such as headings, captions, labels, diagrams, and an index. (Standard 5)
- Photographs, illustrations, charts, maps, and other graphics provide visual information for interpretation. (Standard 7)
- Young readers engage with informational text of age-appropriate complexity with the Read-to-Me audio feature providing support. (Standard 10)

Reading Standards: Foundational Skills

- Some eBook selections include additional interactive learning activities to help develop phonemic awareness and phonics skills. (Standards 2, 3)
- eBooks provide an engaging environment for practicing reading with accuracy and fluency. The optional read-aloud feature in select eBooks provides a model for young readers who need support. (Standard 4)

Writing Standards

- Notepad, highlighting, and zoom tools provide students with an opportunity to track thoughts and make inferences while reading and to use their ideas when writing in response to reading. (Standard 8)
- Picture Starters encourage young readers to respond in writing to what they have read. (Standard 2, 3)

Speaking and Listening Standards

- Storia encourages students to communicate in an articulate manner and enhances interpersonal skills through book discussions and idea building. (Standards 1, 2, 4)
- Young readers view the book and use the Read-to-Me feature to hear texts read aloud. (Standard 2)

Language Standards

- Storia eBooks expose readers to grade-level concepts and vocabulary and enable them to practice foundational reading skills. (Standards 1, 5)
