For Little Ones

Are you my mommy?

Mae Brown | Rebecca Elliot

Featuring the classic storyline of a baby duckling searching for its mother, this book is full of touch-and-feel components that create uniquely interactive animal illustrations. With playful banter and brilliant tactiles on every spread, each encounter the baby duckling shares with other animals will have young readers giggling and handling these creative, touch-and-feel pages.

My Little Polar Bear

Claudia Rueda

A winter wonderland awaits a young polar bear cub that emerges from its den for the first time. As the cub sets out on a dramatic arctic journey, it worries whether it has the skills to survive. But a parent's abiding presence and simple, reassuring words instill confidence and love. This graceful, soothing tale speaks to the powerful bond between parent and child, and to the many stages of a child's growing independence, from first steps to first school experience and even to leaving home.

Mama, Will You Hold My Hand

Anna Pignataro

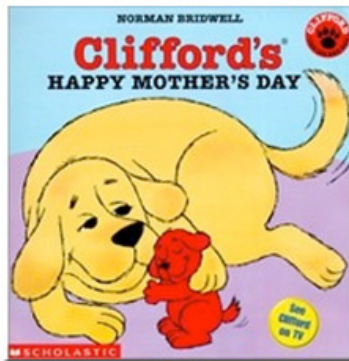

"Mama, will you hold my hand?" Sammy asks as the sun sets. "I'll hold your hand and you'll hold mine," Mama responds. Mama and Sammy travel over slippery places, through wavy waters, and to the brightest star... with the reassurance that they will always be together, no matter what. This deluxe 8 x 8 format has extra-heavy covers and glossy, high-quality pages.
